Sitting on our dam, Bailey (our labrador) at my side or chasing sticks, it's a spectacularly clear, warm day for this time of the year. Coffee, our mother duck, is teaching her new duckling to swim and Campbell the drake cuts an awesome image at sunset on his dam. Our sheep, BJ, Lily and Rosie wander the property mowing the lawns and having a chat with guests, all the while Miss Millie, our enormous pig, understands only one language...food! food! food! Hay and carrots is the diet of choice for Buster, Bella and Bob our trusty donkeys...

The Olive harvest is over for 2010, and whilst it was a smaller crop than last year, at least it didn't take so long to rake off the trees. Thanks to friends and guests for helping out...we couldn't do it without you! Last year we won a silver medal at the Canberra Olive oil show, which was great for our morale, but to be honest it's as much about the freshness, as the olive varieties, that makes for the great taste!

Last year's project was to convert our original swimming pool into a new Plunge pool and spa...a big job and we had to get a 'few mates around' but it's awesome and private to Banksia Spa cottage... the huge deck makes for spectacular views and great BBQ's. Jennifer's 16th birthday party was the test with 25 guests..at one stage nearly all in the pool and spa. This is the spot for drinks at sunset!.
